

IE305: PRINCIPLES OF PROGRAMMING LANGAUGES

Minor - I

Duration: 1 hr

Total Marks: 10 Marks

ANSWER ANY TWO QUESTIONS

- (5 Marks) What are the four binding times? What are the binding times for the following?
  - Keywords* with their meanings
  - Variable to its value
  - Pointer to its legal values
  - Operator to its meaning
- (5 Marks) Choose any one language from Java, C and Python. For the chosen language, identify three objectives and then give examples of features in the language that are directly a result of achieving the stated objectives.
- (5 Marks) What will be the result of the following changes to binding times?
  - Variable to its name at runtime
  - Variable to its type at language implementation time
  - Variable type to its legal values at language implementation time

GOOD LUCK

University of Hyderabad

School of Computer and Information Sciences

15/09/2023

IE305: PRINCIPLES OF PROGRAMMING LANGAUGES

Minor - I

Duration: 1 hr

Total Marks: 10 Marks

ANSWER ANY TWO QUESTIONS

- (5 Marks) What are the four binding times? What are the binding times for the following?
  - Keywords* with their meanings
  - Variable to its value
  - Pointer to its legal values
  - Operator to its meaning
- (5 Marks) Choose any one language from Java, C and Python. For the chosen language, identify three objectives and then give examples of features in the language that are directly a result of achieving the stated objectives.
- (5 Marks) What will be the result of the following changes to binding times?
  - Variable to its name at runtime
  - Variable to its type at language implementation time
  - Variable type to its legal values at language implementation time

GOOD LUCK

University of Hyderabad